

Our Image Advisors will help you to look your best

Your visual presence makes a strong statement to your clients and colleagues about who you are. It reveals your personality and sets the tone for many of your business and career opportunities.

Your Image Quest personal image advisor will give you the skills to manage the perceptions others have of you. We guide you on the journey from where you are today towards effortlessly handling your personal presentation – every single day. When you start feeling great about how you look you'll find a spring in your step that just makes people want to work with you and to be around you.

Image Quest will take you from good to great!

Your Guide

Helen Robinett is a Professional Image Advisor with a passion for helping people to feel great. Her personalised services boost self-esteem, confidence, commitment and marketability, and all of these dramatically improve business bottom lines.

Helen's practical advice is delivered with humour and flair. She handles sensitive issues and egos with warmth and tact and her clients often describe an evolution of new attitudes and approaches to work and life.

One of only six image professionals in Australia to achieve the designation of Certified Image Professional through the Association of Image Consultants International, Helen has published a book on Personal Branding, Apprentice to Business Ace and is also featured in the 2009 Who's Who of Australian Business Women.

Helen chairs the board of Big Brothers Big Sisters mentoring program and Try Youth and Community Services in Melbourne.

You never get a second chance to make a first impression

How do we help you?

Image Quest offer a variety of packages to help you look your best and feel great about yourself. After a session with our Image Advisors you will:

- Develop a confident, powerful presence that brings out the real you
- Discover how to project a positive image that brings together elements of your personality, lifestyle & career
- Receive honest, constructive feedback that will enhance your personal presence and get you where you deserve to be
- Unlock the secrets to understanding how to choose the best clothing cut, colour and fabric drape for your frame
- Save money and say goodbye to impulse buying

Quick Fix

2 hours $380

Just in time for an important event or a quick shop. This session may be a combination of some time in your wardrobe and a spot of shopping.

Seasonal Image Update

½ day $580

Find out how to wear the new season trends for your shape and colouring. This session will freshen up your image and include a colour update, style tips and a wardrobe workout.

Confidence

¾ day $950

Lost your mojo and not sure about what really works for you? This package is split into two sessions to get your confidence back. The initial 3½ hour session includes a colour update, current season style tips, a wardrobe workout and a quick tour of boutiques to create a look that fits your style expression. Session 2 is a 1½ hour appointment with our make up guru to fine tune your daily make up routine and discover some time saving techniques. The outcome? A more confident you.

Image Quest also offer Keynote Presentations and Corporate Seminars

Complete Image Update

1½ days $1,500

Time to revamp and update your image. This package commences in the morning with a complete colour update, current season style tips and a wardrobe workout. Most of us only wear 20% of our wardrobes. Today you will discover how to wear 100% after this session! After an elegant lunch to refresh your energy levels we head to hair and make up to refine your look. The next day we tour boutiques to create a look that fits your style expression. This includes some great basics, accessories and seasonal pieces. The outcome? A complete new you.

Business Essentials

2 days $1,800

Ready to move to the next level in your career? This package is split into 2 sessions on different days. We commence the program in your wardrobe and focus on your career wardrobe. The focus is on communicating the message that will serve you best. We will work with colour, style tips and contrast for success.

The next session will focus on bringing the best pieces into your wardrobe and working them back with your current pieces to build a story. We also consider career accessories and communication skills. This package is ideal for executives moving from good to great.

“I’m done with wasting money on what doesn't work for me. For the first time in 20 years I now look in the mirror and the woman looking back is the real me! My image now represents the confident, innovative woman that I am.”

Liz Grant – Director, Your Customers